Topic	Jay Walking – from Jay Leno and The Tonight Show or Are you Smarter than a Fifth Grader .
Points	100 points
Media	1 minute Video Presentation
Objective	Almost weekly on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, he does an on-the-street interview with the unsuspecting public. In each interview Jay Leno asks questions which are considered general knowledge. His goal in each interview is to show the gap in levels of education by exposing the ignorance in the answers by his interviewees. You can also consider the hit television show Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader , as a source for material. The objective is to film two simple shots in an interview format, the twofer shot and the individual shot, a few coverage shots will also be needed.
Directions	Film five or more individuals answering general knowledge questions with the wrong answer. Make sure that each interview is framed identical in composition. Attempt to get as much information about the answers they provide by talking with them in the interview, it should be a casual give and take situation. Make sure to film the interview using only medium close-up shots, twofers and individual shots. Example #1: At the University of California Los Angeles graduation ceremony, as students exited the stage from picking up their diploma's Jay Leno stopped them to ask them two questions. How many moons circle the earth?
